STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Act, 1967 has been enacted to provide for the more effective prevention of certain unlawful activities of individuals and associations and for matters connected therewith. The scope of the Act was widened in 2004 and the terrorist activities were brought within the scope of the said Act.

2. An Inter-Ministerial Group was constituted to evaluate the existing provisions of the Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Act, 1967 and to recommend necessary amendments to the said Act. In addition to the above, the Financial Action Task Force, an Inter-Governmental organisation set-up to devise policies to combat money laundering and terror financing admitted India as its 34th member. On the basis of commitment made by India at the time of admission to the said Financial Action Task Force, various legislative and other legally binding measures were required to be taken on a medium term basis, i.e., by 31st March, 2012. These recommendations, were examined and it is proposed to amend the Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Act, 1967 to make it more effective in prevention of unlawful activities and dealing with terrorist activities.

3. The Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Amendment Bill, 2011, inter alia, provides to—

(a) increase the period of declaration of an association as unlawful from two years to five years as specified under section 6;

(b) amend section 15 of the aforesaid Act (which defines Terrorist act) and include therein—

(i) economic security and damage to the monetary stability of India by way of production or smuggling or circulation of high quality counterfeit Indian paper currency, coin or of any other material as the existing provisions of the aforesaid Act do not include within their scope an act done with an intent to threaten or threaten likely to economic security of India and counterfeiting Indian paper currency or coin;

(ii) any international or inter-governmental organisation against which any person indulges in acts described in clause (c) of section 15, since the existing provision does not explicitly mention such international or inter-governmental organisation.

(iii) act of demanding any bomb, dynamite or other explosive substances or inflammable substances or fire arms or other lethal weapons or poisonous or noxious or other chemicals or any biological, radiological, nuclear material or device with the intention of aiding, abetting or committing terrorism;

(c) enlarge the scope of section 17 of the aforesaid Act relating to punishment for raising funds for terrorist act and include within its scope, raising of funds, both from legitimate or illegitimate sources, by a terrorist organisation or by terrorist gang or by an individual terrorist;

(d) insert new sections 22A, 22B and 22C in the aforesaid Act to include within its scope, offences by companies societies or trusts and provide punishment therefor;

(e) insert a new section 24 in the aforesaid Act so as to enlarge the scope of proceeds of terrorism to include therein any property intended to be used for terrorism;

(f) insert sub-sections (3) to (5) in section 33 of the aforesaid Act to confer power upon the court by order to provide—

(i) for attachment or forfeiture of property equivalent to the counterfeit Indian currency involved in the offence, including the face value of such currency which are not defined to be of high quality but are part of the common seizure along with the high quality counterfeit Indian currency;

(ii) for attachment or forfeiture of property equivalent to or the value of the proceeds of terrorism involved in the offence;

(iii) for confiscation of movable or immovable property on the basis of the material evidence where the trial cannot be concluded on account of the death of the accused or the accused being declared as a proclaimed offender or any other reason.

4. The proposed amendments to the Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Act, 1967, aim to bring more clarity to the existing legal regime, and remove the deficiencies identified in the implementation of the provisions of the said Act by the Central and State intelligence and investigating agencies.

The Bill seeks to achieve the above objects.
